Guidance for Community Initiative of the Year Award nominations:

This award recognises activities/projects that specifically engage the school with the local community; local residents, businesses and community groups. Your nomination should include:

- How the idea for the activity/project originated
- What the activity/project set out to achieve
- Who was involved (i.e. PTA members, parents, pupils, teachers, governors, community members, third party organisations)
- Where the activity/project took place
- How links with the wider community have strengthened and the impact this has had on the school
- Any plans to replicate/sustain the activity and/or share good practice with other PTAs

Please note: This award is not judged on the amount of funding for the activity/project. The focus is on the impact it had on the school and local community.. You may only submit one project or activity on this nomination form.

Tell us about your nomination

Name of your project/activity:

Photographs, images, diagrams

You can provide up to five photographs, images or diagrams to accompany your application. Parentkind may wish to use these to promote the campaign and/or Parentkind in digital and print media and celebrate the great work PTAs do as part of our marketing activities.

Please submit your National PTA Awards 2026 application form and supporting photographs, pictures, diagrams, as applicable (see section 5.4 of the guidance notes) by submitting your application form online or via email to ptaawards@parentkind.org. Entries must reach us by midnight on 26th June 2026.

How we will use your nomination story

Your nomination helps Parentkind celebrate the work of PTAs, Parent Councils and other parent groups. These stories show the wide range of activities our members deliver and help inspire other parents with practical ideas.

Parentkind may use information from your nomination; including project descriptions, outcomes and impact, in our communications and marketing. This may include our website, social media, printed materials, reports, publications and funding applications.

We may also use your nomination to support our charitable objectives by:

- contributing to discussions at national and local level
- providing real examples that help inform policy and evidence
- sharing insights with external stakeholders (such as education partners or sector organisations) where this helps advance our charitable aims
